

Tour overview

Day one

Arrival to Moscow

Moscow is one of the ten largest megacities in the world and the largest city in Europe and Russia. More than 12 million people live here. The city is named after the eponymous river flowing through it.

Day two

Tour to the Kremlin and the Armoury Chamber

Today you will visit the unique tourist, spiritual and political place in modern Moscow - the Moscow Kremlin, which is the largest medieval fortress in the world and the oldest building in Moscow.

Day three

Moscow City tour and the Tretyakov Gallery

The 2nd day of the tour is dedicated to visiting Red Square, St. Basil's Cathedral, GUM. A pleasant end of the day and its highlight will be a visit to the Tretyakov Gallery, where you should definitely see the most famous works of the Russian painting - Malevich's Black Square, Shishkin's Morning in a Pine Forest, Vasnetsov's Heroes, Ivan the Terrible and his Son Ivan 16 November 1581 by Repin and many others.

Day four

Panoramic City View, Subway Ride and Flight to Irkutsk

Sparrow Hills is a large park on the slope opposite Luzhniki. It is considered one of the seven hills of Moscow.

The main building of Moscow State University is the central building of the university complex, the highest of the seven Stalinist skyscrapers with the height of 183 meters.

Day five

Irkutsk City Tour and visit to the Znamensky Monastery

Irkutsk is a unique city, the cultural capital of eastern Siberia. The proximity to Lake Baikal makes it a real Siberian tourist center. Today, Irkutsk is among the largest cities in the Russian Federation and has the status of one of seven cities with a unique historical and cultural heritage.

.

Day six

Listvyanka Village Tour, Baikal Museum and “Taltsy” Museum

Listvyanka is a village located at the source of the Angara River, the only river flowing from Lake Baikal. “Taltsy” Museum - an open-air museum of wooden architecture located in Taltsy Village.

Day seven

Flight to Saint Petersburg and Guided Tour to the Hermitage museum

The state museum Hermitage in St. Petersburg is a unique palace complex in which rare and richest expositions of masterpieces of painting, sculptures and architecture and also historical values of the previous centuries are collected. Nowadays it is one of the biggest and most popular complexes - it enters in TOP-20 of the most visited world's art museums and contains about three million invaluable exhibits for the period from the Stone Age and till the 21st century!

.

Day eight Saint Petersburg City Tour

This day is dedicated to a sightseeing tour of St. Petersburg - a city, which was the official capital of the Russian state for almost 2 centuries (from 1730 to 1918). You will visit St. Isaac's Cathedral, which is considered the largest cathedral in Russia, the Savior on Spilled Blood, Nevsky Prospect and many other sights.

Day nine Trip to Peterhof

Peterhof was the summer residence of Peter the Great. The Peterhof fountain complex has 173 fountains and 4 cascades. Peterhof was built on the one hand in response to Versailles, and on the other hand, as a triumphal monument to the successful completion of Russia's struggle and access to the Baltic Sea.

Day ten Trip to Pushkin

Catherine Palace is not conceding on beauty to Peterhof and moreover the Amber room, a unique gift to Peter I from the Prussian king, is located there. During its existence, the palace was the official summer residence of three Russian monarchs - Catherine I, Elizabeth Petrovna and Catherine II.

Day eleven

Departure from Saint Petersburg

This day is time to say "good bye" the tour and your acquaintance with Saint Petersburg. You can continue your journey around Russia by choosing one of the extensions to the tour or by request.

