

Tour overview

Day one

Trip to Peterhof, guided Tour to the Hermitage museum

Peterhof was the summer residence of Peter the Great. The Peterhof fountain complex has 173 fountains and 4 cascades. Peterhof was built on the one hand in response to Versailles, and on the other hand, as a triumphal monument to the successful completion of Russia's struggle and access to the Baltic Sea.

The state museum Hermitage in St. Petersburg is a unique palace complex in which rare and richest expositions of masterpieces of painting, sculptures and architecture and also historical values of the previous centuries are collected. Nowadays it is one of the biggest and most popular complexes – it enters in TOP-20 of the most visited world's art museums and contains about three million invaluable exhibits for the period from the Stone Age and till the 21st century!

.

Day two

Trip to Tsarskoe Selo, Saint Petersburg City Tour

Catherine Palace is not conceding on beauty to Peterhof and moreover the Amber room, a unique gift to Peter I from the Prussian king, is located there. During its existence, the palace was the official summer residence of three Russian monarchs - Catherine I, Elizabeth Petrovna and Catherine II.

The rest of the day is dedicated to a sightseeing tour of St. Petersburg - a city, which was the official capital of the Russian state for almost 2 centuries (from 1730 to 1918). You will visit St. Isaac's Cathedral, which is considered the largest cathedral in Russia, the Savior on Spilled Blood, Nevsky Prospect and many other sights.

